Ms. Johnson's Class

By Cynthia Herman, 4th Grade

Welcome. You are about to read about Ms. Johnson's class. I am a student in Ms. Johnson's class. In our class we have 17 students; Wiley, Calvin, Caroline, Clay, Chris, Mazey, Cynthia (me), Charlie, Ruby, Abby, John, Isabel, Walter, Gus, Macie, Thomas, and Kate. Our class does a lot of fun things. You can always hear something exciting. We all get along well. Ms. Johnson is Suuuuuupppppeeerrrrrr!!!! nice. We are going to do some interviews now.

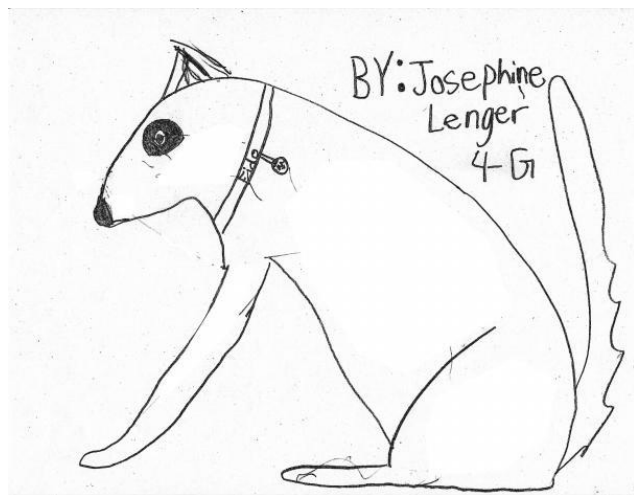

Isabel's interview: How do you like 4th grade?

I like it really good. The teacher is nice. What is your favorite subject? Spelling and specials.

Next is Abby's interview: How do you like 4th grade? I love 4th grade.

What is your favorite subject? Math.

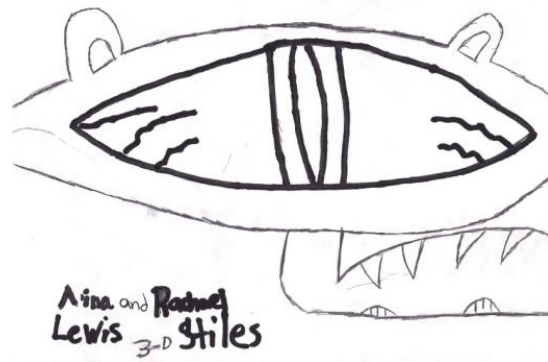

Those interviews were proof that Ms. Johnson is an awesome teacher. That's all for now. Thanks for reading!

The Carolyn Popper

By Caroline Seitz, 5th Grade

Once upon a time there was a beautiful ray of sunshine named Carolyn Popper. It shined on people's faces and made them happy. Then, suddenly it turned into a human, named Carolyn Popper! She was the most beautiful girl on the planet. She went around and met a girl named Caroline. They became best friends. They run together and do photography. Carolyn gave Caroline the gift of sunshine. Carolyn has a reminder of the sun by having a dimple on her cheek. Caroline has a reminder by having a birthmark on her cheek. They lived happily ever after. The end.

Pass-Around Story

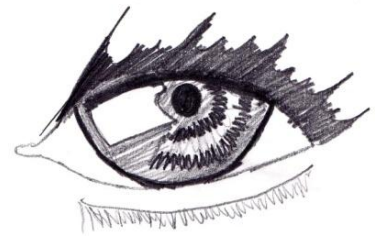

By Jonah, Max, Nate, Shantelle, Sophia, Joey, Isaac...

Once upon a time, there was a bean burrito named Fred. Fred loved to eat pickles. Fred liked to sit at QuikTrip with his friend Ted the hot dog. And the water buffalo complained, "what the heck am I doin' here?" So the water buffalo ate two hot dogs at Quik Trip, and saw a unicorn. George is a Bank Accountant at the Commerce Bank in the Village. George is made of cottage cheese. He was watching all of this from his office and thought, "Wow! A unicorn!"
